COAL STRIKE THREATENED IN PITTSBURG DISTRICT

Ohio Trouble May Spread to Other Communities.

ULTIMATUM WEDNESDAY

President Lewis Makes Statement After Failure to Reach Terms.

Once again the entire Pittsburg district is threatened with a general miners' strike. Unless the operators in the Tuscarawas-Sherrodsville district, in Ohio, where a strike representing 3,500 miners is on, reach an agreement by Wednesday of next week the whole force of miners of the eastern Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Viriginia districts are likely to be called out. This was the statement by President Thomas L. Lewis Thursday, after the fifth conference in the strike district had failed.

The threatened strike would tie up some of the largest mines in the three States, as all the big operators in this section own mines in the district in which the strike has been on since last June. The Pittsburg companies whose employes would be called out by a strike order are:

Pittsburg Coal Company, Monongahela River Coal and Coke company, Keil and River Coal company and the Pittsburg and Eastern Coal company.

C. L. Cassingham of Cleveland, president of the Eastern Ohio Operators' Association and J. J. Roby of the Roby Coal company of Cleveland, declare they need no further time to consider, as they wounld not give in. A general strike will involve 200,000 men.

OLDEST MONONGAHELA RESIDENT IS DEAD

George Alexander Keller Passes Away at the Age of 84 Years.

George Alexander Keller, aged 84, a riverman and the oldest resident of Monongahela, died at his home at Monongahela yesterday. He was born in Bedford county, a son of George Keller, who was slain mysteriously. When aged eight he moved to Monongahela where he became a teamster and drover. In 1850 he was in the grocery and dry goods business. Later he was a retail coal dealer and opened a mine on the site where the Monongahela Lutheran Church now stands.

Leaving the business early in 1870 he bought a foundry, which he operated 18 years. Later he operated a freight and passenger boat between Pittsburg and Morgantown and at his death he held a pilot's license. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. These children survive him: R. T. and R. J. and A. T. Keller and Mrs. W. K. Louttit.

Monessen Wants "Billy" Sunday

Methodist Congregation of That Place Asks Noted Evangelist to Come.

The congregation of the Monessen M. E. church are corresponding with the agent of the famous revivalist "Billy" Sunday to come there and conduct one of his revival services. Nothing definite has been planned as to the date. Rev. Sunday is booked up so far ahead that it is hard to secure his services on short notice unless it should happen in the way of a cancelled engagement, but should the arrangements be carried into effect it is needless to predict that Monessen will experience the most vital revival awakening in the history of the town.

CHICKEN ROOSTS SUFFER

Bell Vernon Poultry Fanciers are Made Victims.

BIG LOSS TO THE OWNERS

Chicken thieves are making merry at the expense of Belle Vernon chicken fanciers, and this week a number of roosts were robbed. During the past few weeks it is stated more than a hundred fowls have been stolen from owners in and near Belle Vernon.

The latest robbery reported was from a foreigner living on Belle Vernon hill. His roost was robbed on Thursday night of about 42 chickens. Apparently there is nothing to do to break up the practice except sit up all night and watch. This has been tried without effect by some chicken owners.

SACRED CONCERT TO BE GIVEN BY TRAINED SINGERS

The congregation of the St. Leonard's Roman Catholic church of Monessen are making great preparations for the sacred concert to be given in the church Sunday evening, February 26, at which time the new pipe organ now being installed will be dedicted with impressive ceremonies.

Professor Eckert, formerly organist at the Carnegie library in Pittsburg, will preside at the organ that evening and he will be assisted by A. S. Schiffer, a noted organist of Shelby, O. Eight young ladies of Pittsburg, who are ranked among the leading artists in the musical world will also be present to render solos at the concert which will contain ten numbers.

TWO AUTOMOBILE GARAGES LOCATE AT BELLE VERNON

Town Will Not be Behind in Providing for Autoists.

ERECTING NEW BUILDING

"Be not the first to don the new nor yet the last to lay the old aside" is an adage thoroughly believed in by Belle Vernon people, so it is not a surprising matter that after the automobile craze has been thoroughly weighed two new automobile agencies are to open up in full blast this spring. Belle Vernon has never had what might be termed an automobile garage. During the past winter the Belle Vernon Auto Repair shops were opened up and this spring will begin handling the Elmore car, one of the finest popular cars on the market, it is stated.

J. J. Clark and J. M. Logue are building a garage at the northern end of town now, and in all probability will be in shape for business by spring.

MAGICIAN M'EWEN COMING TO COYLE

What the Staunton, Virginia paper says about the McEwen Co., who are to appear at the Coyle Theatre next week: McEwen, the Magician and Hypnotist opened last night a week's engagement at the Beverly Opera House to a large and very appreciative audience. The first part consists of tricks of magic at which the performer is very clever. His originality in this act was quite evident and won him much applause and favor.

The second part in which Miss Florence Hartley, the prima donna, was featured, was undoubtedly the treat of the evening Miss Hartley has a magnificient soprano voice and sang several beautiful selections with artistic effect. Her voice is powerful and well cultivated and she pleased the audience immensely.

The entertainment closes with a laughable hypnotic stunt.

K. of C. Reception and Dance

Members of Monessen council No. 954 Knight of Columbus are making preparations to hold a reception and dance in the Monessen Turner hall on Wednesday evening, February 15. Jenkinss' orchestra of Charleroi will furnish the music. A special car for Charleroi will leave the hall after the dance.

P. & L. E. Railroad Keeping Abreast of Time With Improvements

WHAT PENNSY IS DOING

Not only the Pennsylvania, but the Pittsburg and Lake Erie as well is building new railroad stations along the valley. One of the most recently finshed is that at Belle Vernon. The Belle Vernon station is an up-to-date pattern constructed of buff brick. It contains two waiting rooms, a general and a ladies' waiting room. There are two toilets, the ticket office and the baggage room. The interior of the new station is nicely finished and all equipments are in accord with the latest ideas for stations.

Lately there has been considerable work done in the vicinity of the station, paving work being done around it and the general surroundings beautified. The entire cost of the new structure is said to be about $14,000. It was opened up for use on December 19.

The P. and L. E. has several nice stations along the valley, more it might be remarked than the Pennsylvania. Recently the Pennsylvania began building new stations, and with the one at California and the new one promised at Charleroi, which will be the finest along the valley, will more than equalize things.

Greater Interest Being Manifested in Church Meetings

One of the best meetings of a series of evangelistic services at the Methodist church was held last night. Some of the Sunday school classes attended in a body and a very large congregation was present. The pastor preached the sermon, and his subject was "Lost Boys"

He said boys were lost through heedlesness and lack of aim on their part; through unwillingness to battle against the forces without and within them, and through sheer wilful folly. He brought out the ideas that boys may be lost in the home and in the church as well as in the world and besought all present to make a whole-souled consecration to Jesus Christ.

Tonight the second quarterly conference of the church will be held with the Rev. Dr. J. H. Miller presiding. Tomorrow will be a grand rally day for the church.

HOLLAND HAS BILL PREPARED

Washington County Legislator Thinks Women Should Vote.

ANOTHER BILL PROPOSED

Northumberland Representative Would Remove Woman From Her Rights

While "Uncle Banks" Holland, the jolly old bachelor of Washington county, is carrying the banner, "Votes for Women," Representative George W. Schultz, a Northumberland benedict, is preparing to take from women some of her rights. Holland will battle to write into the constitution that the fair ones can cast their ballot, while Schultz will endeavor to inscribe on the statues a prohibition against their operating automobiles throughout the Commonwealth or pounding a typewriter in the State Capitol.

Two years ago "Uncle Banks" made a futile attempt to champion the suffragettes. Then he was new in the art of lawmaking and scheming politicians tossed his constitutional amendment into the legislative discard. With riper experience, he will again tackle the task, and this time fathers, husbands, brothers and beaux will have to stand out in the limelight and be put on record.

A way will be found to call the roll, and the man who last time escaped on the plea that the resolution did not come out of committee will have to frame a new excuse. The Central Pennsylvania Women's Suffrage Association has given notice that it is coming to town to confer with "Uncle Banks," and after that conference the legislation will appear.

Schultz has prepared legislation to forbid the employment of women by the State as stenographers. He has figured out that there are about 240 positions held by suffragettes and he wants these jobs to go to men. He would also amend the automobile laws so as to prohibit any woman from operating a car. Schultz evidently feels confident that the recall will not be put into force, for his chances of remaining in official life will be slim when "Uncle Banks" and his suffragettes get working.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS WILL HOLD RECEPTION

Authority Needed

Through the efforts of Charleroi and valley people, who petitioned their needs to the State Railroad commission, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad people have agreed to permit their fast train to stop at Finleyville for a period of three months. This concession is made by the railroad people subject to their own convenience and not that of the public. They were petitioned to make these stops, however, for the convenience of the public which is supposed to govern the special privileges the State gives to railroad companies; namely, the right of eminent domain.

This action of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company to consent to give a trial to a policy that is of great convenience to the public, instead of willingly conforming to it without question, is an object lesson in favor of the Public Utilities Commision, advocated by Governor Tener. This commission is to be created with authority to compel railroad and other public utilities companies to serve the public in exchange for the special privileges the public gives them. A Railroad Commission already exists to which complaints can be made, but this commission can only recommend; it cannot compel any action that will be of benefit to the public. These companies are given special concessions which the public creates, and they in turn owe a duty to the public that they should be compelle to perform whenever their indifference exceeds the bounds of toleration.

Woman Suffrage

Pennsylvania woman have a "most ardent champion in a confirmed bachelor Assemblymen, our own Uncle Banks" Holland of Washington county. Uncle Banks is about ready to introduce a resolution for an amendment to the constitution to permit women to vote. He had a similar resolution last session, but because of some differences among the advocates of women suffrage it was not given much support. This year the various elements have gotten together and the Holland resolution will doubtless be pushed vigorously.

"Uncle Banks'" resolution may or may not prevail. The chances are that it will not. Nevertheless its introduction will do some good in bringing the question up for discussion and agitation. As the women of the State are as much affected by the government—State and municipal—as the men, there is no good reason why they should not have a voice in determining the regulations that most vitally a effect their well being. Inasmuch as they have to go out into the working and business world and help to support the men and their children, they should have all the civic rights with which men are endowed. "Uncle Banks" is on the right track.

It seems that Artist Earle is still in the affinity business. Anyway he apeared the other day with a brand new affinity.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A Pittsburg newspaper man who made a flying visit to Charleroi the other day found time to tell a good story while talking shop with some of the members of the fraternity here. It appears that in one of the newspaper deals in that city in the past a prominent capitalist, who never before had been inside of a newspaper office, became possessed of a big block of stock. He was a noted captain of industry, and was famed for never having any dead wood about any of his plants. Having a desire to know something about his new possession, he made nightly visits through the office when the force was at work, observing and asking questions and getting all the information possible. Going through the editorial rooms the first night he observed every one working at top speed. The desk men were busy and swearing fluently at messenger boys flying about from one room to another, while the reporters were rushing in and out and pounding their typewriters in a merry tattoo.

At one of the desks the visitor noticed a man with his feet cocked up on his desk, leaning back in his chair reading a paper. This didn't look good in the midst of so much activity. So he made a visit the next night, and discovered the same individual reading as before. A third visit revealed the same state of affairs. Calling the managing editor aside the stockholder said:

"It doesn't seem to me that you're looking after your force very well. I want you to fire that fellow over there at that desk. I've been in here three nights now looking things over, and each time all that fellow has been doing is to sit there and read the papers."

"Firehim!" exclaimed the managing editor "why, man alive, that's our exchange editor. He's looking over all the papers to see what the other fellows have, and to get both advertising and news pointers. He's one of the most useful men we have on the job"

G. H Austin, who was a visitor in Charleroi from Ravenna, Ohio, this week, tells of a thrilling experience he had while acting in the capacity of an express messenger between St. Louis and Columbus, Ohio

"In this particular instance," said Mr. Austin, "I had in charge $60,000 in actual currency which a St. Louis banking house was sending to a bank in Columbus. The later people were advised when to expect the remittance which I had in charge, and were to meet me at Columbus to receive the money.

"Coming into the Columbus yards an axle broke on the express car and the train crew cut it out and left it marooned alone in the yards until morning. The bank people could not find either car, messenger or money, and began telegraphing over the country, to watch out for me. In the meantime I was sitting in the locked car with a Winchester rifle waiting for daylight.

"Finally they located the car and sent out a switch engine and brought messenger and money into the station where our arrival spoiled a big sensation for the newspaper reporters who had by that time gotten hot on the trail of what looked like a big story."

"When a boy begins to take notice of the girls you can look for a wonderful transformation in that lad's nature" said a Charleroi citizen a day or two ago. "My fifteen year old son was inclined to be careless and slovenly about his personal appearance. I had to watch him constantly to keep him from going to school wearing a soiled collar or without blackening his shoes. I also had to jack him up constantly about keeping his hands clean, and had to chase him to the barber shop whenever he needed a hair cut.

"The turning point came a couple of month ago, when the boy was invited to his first party. All his school mate were going and he was much elated over his invitation. The night of the party he came home from school with some new collars he had bought on the way. At the supper table he remarked:

"'I think I'll chase down street and get my shoes shined; they do a better job than I can. And say, Dad, I need a hair cut.'

"Now, the order is reversed. The boy is particular about his socks, his ties, and wants his trousers pressed every week. And all this change dates from that one party."

CAUGHT HAND IN SAUSAGE MACHINE

Mrs. George W. Moody met with a painful accident at her husband's meat market on Crest avenue last evening. In feeding a sausage machine she got her right hand caught, and before the machine, which was driven by electic power, could be stopped she suffered the loss of the first three fingers as well as the end of her little finger and thumb. Physicians were called and the wounds dressed, and Mrs. Moody is feeling as comfortable as could be expected under the circumstance today.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Charleroi, it Has Stood the Test

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Charleroi. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following.

Mrs. Charles Bromwich, 714 Washington avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "About two years ago I had a severe attack of kidney disease and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. I was also subject to headache and a feeling of and langnor though I tried a number of remedies, I was not helped. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and deciding to try them I procured a box at Piper Bros' Drug Store. In a few days after using this remedy, I felt a great deal better and before long a complete cure was effected. Doans' Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement." Statement given September 30, 1907.

CURED PERMANENTLY.

On November 1, 1909, Mrs. Bromwich said: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as when I gave a public statement in their favor two years ago. The cure this remedy effected has been permanent."

AMONG THE THEATRES

The Palace—Charleroi.

"Where you see the crowds you see the show," aptly describes the situation at the Palace Theatre where, the people line up nightly in throngs to see the best photoplays that are produced anywhere and to listen to some of the best popular vocal and instrumental music that is rendered. One of the strong features of the week was a most interesting film showing the operation of fish culture. The process was presented in every detail and shows what the Government and States are doing to keep the streams and lakes stocked with fish. In this as in many other instances, science and art have vastly improved over Nature, and modern fish hatcheries prevent the awful waste and destruction of the helpless embryo which but a small proportion survives when left to natural methods. A graphic melodrama of the social climbers was shown in a film of "Modern Society." "Father in Spite of Himself," and some others of similar nature made the comedy line particularly strong. Not the least noteworthy feature is the vocalist corps of the Palace, which was never stronger Louis Brusa, in popular illustrated songs, is at his best, while John Evers, the popular young Welsh tenor excels in classic and heavier productions.

The Coyle—Charleroi

The following is the story of "The Rosary" which comes to the Coyle Theatre Tuesday, Feb. 21. Bruce Wilton has amassed a fortune which he has lavished on his wife Vera. Their household is a happy one but into it creeps a note of menace. No one hears it at first save Father Kelly a priest, the former tutor of Bruce. Quietly he goes to work with his sharpened sense to find the person who is causing the adverse influence in the household. Almost on the verge of discovering the cause, calamity descends upon the Wilton house. Bruce's fortune is swept away and in such a manner that he believes his wife the cause of his ruin.

Husband and wife are separated, the home is destroyed and yet the cause of all this disaster is unknown. Father Kelly, with a faith that moves mountains, goes on quietly, serenly and confidently with but one purpose in view, the happiness of those he loves. He solves the mystery and lets the white light of truth into the minds that have been darkened by evil. More than this, he finds the one who has caused all the misery and restores the home.

New Duquesne—Pittsburg.

A notable treat is to be offered by the Harry Davis Stock players at the Duquesne Theatre next week in that powerful play of modern American life and high finance, "The Lion and the Mouse" by Charles Klein, the auther of "The Music Master," David Warfield's big hit. In the central character of John Burkett Ryder he has given a footlight portrait of a typical American captain of industry—a representative American master of finance, who is a giant in the money market and a king among his fellowmen. In certain respects the portrait is said to have been modeled after John D. Rockefeller.

How the heroine manages to exploit Ryder's business methods, how she brings this lion of the financial world to her feet, and yet how she finally rescues him from the dangerous position to which she has placed him is all told in stirring situations that grip with intense interest from start to finish.

This high royaltied attraction is added testimony to Manager Davis' Duquesne policy of giving the very best modern dramas at the lowest prices. Albert Morrison would seem to be ideally fitted, both by personality and by temperment to portray the masterful Ryder; while Mary Hall will make a most appealing heroine in this greatest of all Charles Klein's plays.

The Alvin—Pittsburg

Beginning Mnday evening, February 13, E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe will play a week's engagement in Shakespearean repertoire at the Alvin Theatre. These two eminent dramatic artists in whom now repose the hopes of the American stage and to whom the public looks for the upholding of the dignity of the drama in this country will present a selection of their most notable Shakesperean embodiments including their new production of Macbeth." The repertoire will be as follows: Monday night, Macbeth" Tuesday, .Taming of the Shrew" Wednesday, "Hamlet," Thursday, "Macbeth," Friday, Merchants of Venice." Saturday Matinee, "Macbeth" and Saturday night, "Romeo and Juliet." To see Sothern again in his favorite characters of Petruchio, Hamlet, Shylock and Romeo, and Miss Marlowe in her charming portrayals of Katherine Ophelia, Portia and Juliet with the magnificient environment which the two great artists have given to the plays they present is indeed a dramatic event of the first importance.

The company has been selected from former well known members of their Shakespeaean productions who have been with them for many years, and includes Frederick Lewis, Rowland Buckstone, William Harris, Sidney Mather, Malcolm Bradley, Albert S. Howson, Norah Lamson, Mrs. Eugenia Woodward, Alma Kruger, Lenora Chippendale and the auxilary of the Sothern and Marlowe organization, numbering nearly one hundred members.

The Nixon—Pittsburg

David Belacso will present Frances Starr at the Nixon Theatre Monday, February 13, in "The Easiest Way," Eugene Walter's great play of "a particular phase of New York Life." She will have for her engagement the support of the New York cast, including Joseph Kilgour, Edward Robins, John P. Brawn, Louise Randolph and Violet Rand, and the scenic equipment will be identical with that provided by David Belasco for the run of the play at the Belasco Theatre in New York.

In direct and convincing manner "The Easiest Way" depicts this aspect of New York life which are concerned with the tragedy of those. women who are so wedded to luxury that they will pay almost any price for its enjoyment.

The firstact discloses a scene of exquisite beauty amid the rolling foot hills of the Rockies radiant in the golden light of the afternoon sun. Not less faithful is the theatrical boarding house interior shown in the second act which is followed, by a superb setting of the interior of an apartment in an expensive hotel in New York.

No play in years has made such a profound sensation as "The Easiest Way." Its record has been phenomenal. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees during Miss Starr's engagement The evening performance will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock and the matinee at 2:15 o'clock. Important incidents in connection with history of the play are told directly after the curtain rises.

The Grand—Pittsburg

Europe and America will vie for honors in the vaudeville show at the Grand next week. The attractions are of world-wide prominence. Among them will be Laddie Cliff, pre-eminently England's best boy comedian, singer and dancer.

Joseph Hart's players, headed by Bernard Reinold will present George V. Hobart's merry comedietta entitled "Dinkelspiel's Christmas." One of the most laughable new acts of the current season is that which Charles Ahearn and his troupe of 12 cyclists will will give. Wilbur Mack and Nella Walker a successful pair from musical comedy, will introduce "The Girl and the Pearl." It is called a musical flirtation.

"P. T Barnum, Jr." is the title of a sketch to be given by Jolly, Wild and Co. Frank Morrell, formerly of "That Quartet," who has lately been doing a "single turn" in vaudeville, will sing and tell stories J. Warren Keene and his pretty girl assistant will entertain for a quarter of an hour with magic and selight of hand. Charbino brothers are described as "European wonders." Their act introduces the only man in the world capable of sliding down a 40 foot incline in his head.

In addition to several other numbers the Grand's bill will present the usual high class motion picture exhibition.

COAL STRIKE THREATENED IN PITTSBURG DISTRICT

Ohio Trouble May Spread to Other Communities.

ULTIMATUM WEDNESDAY

President Lewis Makes Statement After Failure to Reach Terms.

Once again the entire Pittsburg district is threatened with a general miners' strike. Unless the operators in the Tuscarawas-Sherrodsville district, in Ohio, where a strike representing 8,500 miners is on, reach an agreement by Wednesday of next week the whole force of miners of the eastern Ohio, Western Pennsylvania and West Viriginia districts are likely to be called out. This was the statement by President Thomas L. Lewis Thursday, after the fifth conference in the strike district had failed.

The threatened strike would tie up some of the largest mines in the three states, as all the big operators in this section own mines in the district in which the strike has been on since last June. The Pittsburg companies whose employes would be called out on a strike order are:

Pittsburg Coal Company, Monongahela River Coal and Coke company, Oil and River Coal company and the Pittsburg and Eastern Coal company.

C. L. Cassingham of Cleveland, president of the Eastern Ohio Operators' Association and J. J. Roby of the Roby Coal company of Cleveland, declare they need no further time to consider, as they would not give. A general strike will involve 70,000 men.

George Alexander Keller Passes Away at the Age of 84 Years.

George Alexander Keller, aged 84, riverman and the oldest resident of Monongahela, died at his home at Monongahela yesterday. He was born in Bedford county, a son of George Keller, who was slain mysteriously. When aged eight he moved to Monongahela where he became a teamster and drover. In 1850 he was in the grocery and dry goods business. Later he was a retail coal dealer and opened a mine on the site where the Monongahela Lutheran Church now stands. Leaving the business early in 1870 he bought a foundry, which he operated 18 years. Later he operated a freight and passenger boat between Pittsburg and Morgantown and at his death he held a pilot's license. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. These children survive him: R. T. and R. J. and A. T. Keller and Mrs. W. K. Louttit.

Monessen Wants "Billy" Sunday

Methodist Congregation of That Place Asks Noted Evangelist to Come.

The congregation of the Monessen M. E. church are corresponding with the agent of the famous revivalist "Billy" Sunday to come there and conduct one of his revival services. Nothing definite has been planned as to the date. Rev. Sunday is booked up so far ahead that it is hard to secure his services on short notice unless it should happen in the way of a cancelled engagement, but should the arrangements be carried into effect it is needless to predict that Monessen will experience the most vital revival awakening in the history of the town.

CHICKEN ROOSTS SUFFER

Bell Vernon Poultry Fanciers are Made Victims.

BIG LOSS TO THE OWNERS

Chicken thieves are making merry at the expense of Belle Vernon chicken fanciers, and this week a number of roosts were robbed. During the past few weeks it is stated more than a hundred fowls have been stolen from owners in and near Belle Vernon.

The latest robbery reported was from a foreigner living on Belle Vernon hill. His roost was robbed on Thursday night of about 42 chickens. Apparently there is nothing to do to break up the practice except sit up all night and watch. This has been tried without effect by some chicken owners.

SACRED CONCERT TO BE GIVEN BY TRAINED SINGERS

The congregation of the St. Leonard's Roman Catholic church of Monessen are making great preparations for the sacred concert to be given in the church Sunday evening, February 26, at which time the new pipe organ now being installed will be dedicted with impressive ceremonies.

Professor Eckert, formerly organist at the Carnegie library in Pittsburg, will preside at the organ that evening and he will be assisted by A. S. Schiffer, a noted organist of Shelby, O. Eight young ladies of Pittsburg, who are ranked among the leading artists in the musical world will also be present to render solos at the concert which will contain ten numbers.

TWO AUTOMOBILE GARAGES LOCATE AT BELLE VERNON

Town Will Not be Behind in Providing for Autoists.

ERECTING NEW BUILDING

"Be not the first to don the new nor yet the last to lay the old aside" is an adage thoroughly believed in by Belle Vernon people, so it is not a surprising matter that after the automobile craze has been thoroughly weighed two new automobile agencies are to open up in full blast this spring. Belle Vernon has never had what might be termed an automobile garage. During the past winter the Belle Vernon Auto Repair shops were opened up and this spring will begin handling the Elmore car, one of the finest popular cars on the market, it is stated.

J. J. Clark and J. M. Logue are building a garage at the northern end of town now, and in all probability will be in shape for business by spring.

MAGICIAN M'EWEN COMING TO COYLE

What the Staunton, Virginia paper says about the McEwen Co., who are to appear at the Coyle Theatre next week: McEwen, the Magician and Hypnotist opened last night a week's engagement at the Beverly Opera House to a large and very appreciative audience. The first part consists of tricks of magic at which the performer is very clever. His originality in this act was quite evident and won him much applause and favor.

The second part in which Miss Florence Hartley, the prima donna, was featured, was undoubtedly the treat of the evening. Miss Hartley has a magnificient soprano voice and sang several beautiful selections with artistic effect. Her voice is powerful and well cultivated and she pleased the audience immensely.

The entertainment closes with a laughable hypnotic stunt.

K. of C. Reception and Dance

Members of Monessen council No. 964 Knight of Columbus are making preparations to hold a reception and dance in the Monessen Turner hall on Wednesday evening, February 15. Jenkinss' orchestra of Charleroi will furnish the music. A special car for Charleroi will leave the hall after the dance.

P. & L. E. Railroad Keeping Abreast of Time With Improvements

WHAT PENNSY IS DOING

Not only the Pennsylvania, but the Pittsburg and Lake Erie as well is building new railroad stations along the valley. One of the most recently finshed is that at Belle Vernon. The Belle Vernon station is an up-to-date pattern constructed of buff brick. It contains two waiting rooms, a general and a ladies' waiting room. There are two toilets, the ticket office and the baggage room. The interior of the new station is nicely finished and all equipments are in accord with the latest ideas for stations.

Lately there has been considerable work done in the vicinity of the station, paving work being done around it and the general surroundings beautified. The entire cost of the new structure is said to be about $14,000. It was opened up for use on December 19.

The P. and L. E. has several nice stations along the valley, more it might be remarked than the Pennsylvania. Recently the Pennsylvania began building new stations, and with the one at California and the new one promised at Charleroi, which will be the finest along the valley, will more than equalize things.

Greater Interest Being Manifested in Church Meetings

One of the best meetings of a series of evangelistic services at the Methodist church was held last night. Some of the Sunday school classes attended in a body and a very large congregation was present. The pastor preached the sermon, and his subject was "Lost Boys"

He said boys were lost through heedlessness and lack of aim on their part; through unwillingness to battle against the forces without and within them, and through sheer wilful folly. He brought out the ideas that boys may be lost in the home and in the church as well as in the world and besought all present to make a whole-souled consecration to Jesus Christ.

Tonight the second quarterly conference of the church will be held with the Rev. Dr. J. H. Miller presiding. Tomorrow will be a grand rally day for the church.

HOLLAND HAS BILL PREPARED

Washington County Legislator Thinks Women Should Vote.

ANOTHER BILL PROPOSED

Northumberland Representative Would Remove Woman From Her Rights

While "Uncle Banks" Holland, the jolly old bachelor of Washington county, is carrying the banner, "Votes for Women," Representative George W. Schultz, a Northumberland benedict, is preparing to take from women some of her rights. Holland will battle to write into the constitution that the fair ones can cast their ballot, while Schultz will endeavor to inscribe on the statues a prohibition against their operating automobiles throughout the Commonwealth or pounding a typewriter in the State Capitol.

Two years ago "Uncle Banks" made a futile attempt to champion the suffragettes. Then he was new in the art of lawmaking and scheming politicians tossed his constitutional amendment into the legislative discard. With riper experience, he will again tackle the task, and this time fathers, husbands, brothers and beaux will have to stand out in the limelight and be put on record.

A way will be found to call the roll, and the man who last time escaped on the plea that the resolution did not come out of committee will have to frame a new excuse. The Central Pennsylvania Women's Suffrage Association has given notice that it is coming to town to confer with "Uncle Banks," and after that conference the legislation will appear.

Schultz has prepared legislation to forbid the employment of women by the State as stenographers. He has figured out that there are about 240 positions held by suffragettes and he wants these jobs to go to men. He would also amend the automobile laws so as to prohibit any woman from operating a car. Schultz evidently feels confident that the recall will not be put into force, for his chances of remaining in official life will be slim when "Uncle Banks" and his suffragettes get working.

Authority Needed

Through the efforts of Charleroi and valley people, who petitioned their needs to the State Railroad commission, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad people have agreed to permit their fast train to stop at Finleyville for a period of three months. This concession is made by the railroad people subject to their own convenience and not that of the public. They were petitioned to make these stops, however, for the convenience of the public which is supposed to govern the special privileges the State gives to railroad companies; namely, the right of eminent domain.

This action of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company to consent to give a trial to a policy that is of great convenience to the public, instead of willingly conforming to it without question, is an object lesson in favor of the Public Utilities Commision, advocated by Governor Tener. This commission is to be created with authority to compel railroad and other public utilities companies to serve the public in exchange for the special privileges the public gives them. A Railroad Commission already exists to which complaints can be made, but this commission can only recommend; it cannot compel any action that will be of benefit to the public. These companies are given special concessions which the public creates, and they in turn owe a duty to the public that they should be compelle to perform whenever their indifference exceeds the bounds of toleration.

Woman Suffrage

Pennsylvania woman have a "most ardent champion in a confirmed bachelor Assemblymen, our own Uncle Banks" Holland of Washington county. Uncle Banks is about ready to introduce a resolution for an amendment to the constitution to permit women to vote. He had a similar resolution last session, but because of some differences among the advocates of women suffrage it was not given much support. This year the various elements have gotten together and the Holland resolution will doubtless be pushed vigorously.

"Uncle Banks'" resolution may or may not prevail. The chances are that it will not. Nevertheless its introduction will do some good in bringing the question up for discussion and agitation. As the women of the State are as much affected by the government—State and municipal—as the men, there is no good reason why they should not have a voice in determining the regulations that most vitally a effect their well being. Inasmuch as they have to go out into the working and business world and help to support the men and their children, they should have all the civic rights with which men are endowed. "Uncle Banks" is on the right track.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A Pittsburg newspaper man who made a flying visit to Charleroi the other day found time to tell a good story while talking shop with some of the members of the fraternity here. It appears that in one of the newspaper deals in that city in the past a prominent capitalist, who never before had been inside of a newspaper office, became possessed of a big block of stock. He was a noted captain of industry, and was famed for never having any dead wood about any of his plants. Having a desire to know something about his new possession, he made nightly visits through the office when the force was at work, observing and asking questions and getting all the information possible. Going through the editorial rooms the first night he observed every one working at top speed. The desk men were busy and swearing fluently at messenger boys flying about from one room to another, while the reporters were rushing—in and out and pounding their typewriters in a merry tattoo.

At one of the desks the visitor noticed a man with his feet cocked up on his desk, leaning back in his chair reading a paper. This didn't look good in the midst of so much activity. So he made a visit the next night, and discovered the same individual reading as before. A third visit revealed the same state of affairs. Calling the managing editor aside the stockholder said:

"It doesn't seem to me that you're looking after your force very well. I want you to fire that fellow over there at that desk. I've been in here three nights now looking things over, and each time all that fellow has been doing is to sit there and read the papers."

"Fire him!" exclaimed the managing editor "why, man alive, that's our exchange editor. He's looking over all the papers to see what the other fellows have, and to get both advertising and news pointers. He's one of the most useful men we have on the job"

G. H Austin, who was a visitor in Charleroi from Ravenna, Ohio, this week, tells of a thrilling experience he had while acting in the capacity of an express messenger between St. Louis and Columbus, Ohio

"In this particular instance," said Mr. Austin, "I had in charge $60,000 in actual currency which a St. Louis banking house was sending to a bank in Columbus. The later people were advised when to expect the remittance which I had in charge, and were to meet me at Columbus to receive the money.

"Coming into the Columbus yards an axle broke on the express car and the train crew cut it out and left it marooned alone in the yards until morning. The bank people could not find either car, messenger or money, and began telegraphing over the country, to watch out for me. In the meantime I was sitting in the locked car with a Winchester rifle waiting for daylight.

"Finally they located the car and sent out a switch engine and brought messenger and money into the station where our arrival spoiled a big sensation for the newspaper reporters who had by that time gotten hot on the trail of what looked like a big story."

"When a boy begins to take notice of the girls you can look for a wonderful transformation in that lad's nature" said a Charleroi citizen a day or two ago. "My fifteen year old son was inclined to be careless and slovenly about his personal appearance. I had to watch him constantly to keep him from going to school wearing a soiled collar or without blackening his shoes. I also had to jack him up constantly about keeping his hands clean, and had to chase him to the barber shop whenever he needed a hair cut.

"The turning point came a couple of month ago, when the boy was invited to his first party. All his school mate were going and he was much elated over his invitation. The night of the party he came home from school with some new collars he had bought on the way. At the supper table he remarked:

"'I think I'll chase down street and get my shoes shined; they do a better job than I can. And say, Dad, I need a hair cut.'

"Now, the order is reversed. The boy is particular about his socks, his ties, and wants his trousers pressed every week. And all this change dates from that one party."

CAUGHT HAND IN SAUSAGE MACHINE

Mrs. George W. Moody met with a painful accident at her husband's meat market on Crest avenue last evening. In feeding a sausage machine she got her right hand caught, and before the machine, which was driven by electic power, could be stopped she suffered the loss of the first three fingers as well as the end of her little finger and thumb. Physicians were called and the wounds dressed, and Mrs. Moody is feeling as comfortable as could be expected under the circumstance today.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Charleroi, it Has Stood the Test

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Charleroi. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following.

Mrs. Charles Bromwich, 714 Washington avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "About two years ago I had a severe attack of kidney disease and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. I was also subject to headache and a feeling of and langnor though I tried a number of remedies, I was not helped. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and deciding to try them I procured a box at Piper Bros' Drug Store. In a few days after using this remedy, I felt a great deal better and before long a complete cure was effected. Doans' Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement." Statement given September 30, 1907.

CURED PERMANENTLY.

On November 1, 1909, Mrs. Bromwich said: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as when I gave a public statement in their favor two years ago. The cure this remedy effected has been permanent."

AMONG THE THEATRES

The Palace—Charleroi.

"Where you see the crowds you see the show," aptly describes the situation at the Palace Theatre where, the people line up nightly in throngs to see the best photoplays that are produced anywhere and to listen to some of the best popular vocal and instrumental music that is rendered. One of the strong features of the week was a most interesting film showing the operation of fish culture. The process was presented in every detail and shows what the Government and States are doing to keep the streams and lakes stocked with fish. In this as in many other instances, science and art have vastly improved over Nature, and modern fish hatcheries prevent the awful waste and destruction of the helpless embryo which but a small proportion survives when left to natural methods. A graphic melodrama of the social climbers was shown in a film of "Modern Society." "Father in Spite of Himself," and some others of similar nature made the comedy line particularly strong. Not the least noteworthy feature is the vocalist corps of the Palace, which was never stronger Louis Brusa, in popular illustrated songs, is at his best, while John Evers, the popular young Welsh tenor excels in classic and heavier productions.

The Coyle—Charleroi

The following is the story of "The Rosary" which comes to the Coyle Theatre Tuesday, Feb. 21. Bruce Wilton has amassed a fortune which he has lavished on his wife Vera. Their household is a happy one but into it creeps a note of menace. No one hears it at first save Father Kelly a priest, the former tutor of Bruce. Quietly he goes to work with his sharpened sense to find the person who is causing the adverse influence in the household. Almost on the verge of discovering the cause, calamity descends upon the Wilton house. Bruce's fortune is swept away and in such a manner that he believes his wife the cause of his ruin.

Husband and wife are separated, the home is destroyed and yet the cause of all this disaster is unknown. Father Kelly, with a faith that moves mountains, goes on quietly, serenly and confidently with but one purpose in view, the happiness of those he loves. He solves the mystery and lets the white light of truth into the minds that have been darkened by evil. More than this, he finds the one who has caused all the misery and restores the home.

New Duquesne—Pittsburg.

A notable treat is to be offered by the Harry Davis Stock players at the Duquesne Theatre next week in that powerful play of modern American life and high finance, "The Lion and the Mouse" by Charles Klein, the author of "The Music Master," David Warfield's big hit. In the central character of John Burkett Ryder he has given a footlight portrait of a typical American captain of industry—a representative American master of finance, who is a giant in the money market and a king among his fellowmen. In certain respects the portrait is said to have been modeled after John D. Rockefeller.

How the heroine manages to exploit Ryder's business methods, how she brings this lion of the financial world to her feet, and yet how she finally rescues him from the dangerous position to which she has placed him is all told in stirring situations that grip with intense interest from start to finish.

This high royaltied attraction is added testimony to Manager Davis' Duquesne policy of giving the very best modern dramas at the lowest prices. Albert Morrison would seem to be ideally fitted, both by personality and by temperment to portray the masterful Ryder; while Mary Hall will make a most appealing heroine in this greatest of all Charles Klein's plays.

The Alvin—Pittsburg

Beginning Mnday evening, February 13, E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe will play a week's engagement in Shakespearean repertoire at the Alvin Theatre. These two eminent dramatic artists in whom now repose the hopes of the American stage and to whom the public looks for the upholding of the dignity of the drama in this country will present a selection of their most notable Shakesperean embodiments including their new production of Macbeth." The repertoire will be as follows: Monday night, Macbeth" Tuesday, .Taming of the Shrew" Wednesday, "Hamlet," Thursday, "Macbeth," Friday, Merchants of Venice," Saturday Matinee, "Macbeth" and Saturday night, "Romeo and Juliet." To see Sothern again in his favorite characters of Petruchio, Hamlet, Shylock and Romeo, and Miss Marlowe in her charming portrayals of Katherine Ophelia, Portia and Juliet with the magnificient environment which the two great artists have given to the plays they present is indeed a dramatic event of the first importance.

The company has been selected from former well known members of their Shakespeaean productions who have been with them for many years, and includes Frederick Lewis, Rowland Buckstone, William Harris, Sidney Mather, Malcolm Bradley, Albert S. Howson, Norah Lamson, Mrs. Eugenia Woodward, Alma Kruger, Lenora Chippendale and the auxilary of the Sothern and Marlowe organization, numbering nearly one hundred members.

The Nixon—Pittsburg

David Belasco will present Frances Starr at the Nixon Theatre Monday, February 13, in "The Easiest Way," Eugene Walter's great play of "a particular phase of New York Life." She will have for her engagement the support of the New York cast, including Joseph Kilgour, Edward Robins, John P. Brawn, Louise Randolph and Violet Rand, and the scenic equipment will be identical with that provided by David Belasco for the run of the play at the Belasco Theatre in New York.

In direct and convincing manner "The Easiest Way" depicts this aspect of New York life which are concerned with the tragedy of those. women who are so wedded to luxury that they will pay almost any price for its enjoyment.

The firstact discloses a scene of exquisite beauty amid the rolling foot hills of the Rockies radiant in the golden light of the afternoon sun. Not less faithful is the theatrical boarding house interior shown in the second act which is followed, by a superb setting of the interior of an apartment in an expensive hotel in New York.

No play in years has made such a profound sensation as "The Easiest Way." Its record has been phenomenal. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees during Miss Starr's engagement. The evening performance will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock and the matinee at 2:15 o'clock. Important incidents in connection with history of the play are told directly after the curtain rises.

The Grand—Pittsburg

Europe and America will vie for honors in the vaudeville show at the Grand next week. The attractions are of world-wide prominence. Among them will be Laddie Cliff, pre-eminently England's best boy comedian, singer and dancer.

Joseph Hart's players, headed by Bernard Reinold will present George V. Hobart's merry comedietta entitled "Dinkelspiel's Christmas." One of the most laughable new acts of the current season is that which Charles Ahearn and his troupe of 12 cyclists will will give. Wilbur Mack and Nella Walker a successful pair from musical comedy, will introduce "The Girl and the Pearl." It is called a musical flirtation.

"P. T. Barnum, Jr." is the title of a sketch to be given by Jolly, Wild and Co. Frank Morrell, formerly of "That Quartet," who has lately been doing a "single turn" in vaudeville, will sing and tell stories J. Warren Keene and his pretty girl assistant will entertain for a quarter of an hour with magic and selight of hand. Charbino brothers are described as "European wonders." Their act introduces the only man in the world capable of sliding down a 40 foot incline in his head.

In addition to several other numbers the Grand's bill will present the usual high class motion picture exhibition.

Buying Food by Mail

A recent development of the mail order business is the buying by mail of food. This system was inaugurated in this section last fall by McCann and Co., of Pittsburg, who sold 10-pound pails of Butterine at $2.00. The effort was so successful that they have decided to extend their plan this year.

As before, they will send you a 10 pound pail of finest Creamery Butterine at $2.00. As this is regular 23c Butterine, and cheap at that; you save 30c on each order.

Offer No. 2 includes the 10-pound pail of Butterine and 5 lbs of 25c Coffee, which they ship for $3.00, saving you 55c on the order.

The third offer takes 10 lbs of Butterine, 5 lbs of 25c Coffee and 1 lb of 60c Tea all for $3.50, or a saving of 85 cents.

A fourth offer includes the 10 lbs of Butterine and 3 lbs of 40c Tea at $3.00, or a saving of 50 c. Take your choice of Ceylon, English Breakfast, Assam, Olong, Japan or Young Hyson teas.

These values are guaranteed and are certain to please you. Send cash for a trial order to McCann and Co., Pittsburg, Pa. They pay express charges to Charleroi and vicinity.

ARRANGING AUTO SHOW

Affair at Pittsburg Promises to be Auspicious Event.

ELABORATE DECORATIONS

The most pretentious preparations ever made for any exhibition in Pittsburg are under way for the coming Exposition Automobile and Areo Show which opens March 18. Scenic decorations have been contracted for no less than 1,000 feet of canvass, 18 feet high upon which will be reproduced famous masterpieces 28x18 feet each.

No less than five aeroplane manufacturers will exhibit at the show. The flying machines will be suspended from the ceiling at such a height as to be level with the eye from the balcony promenade.

Decorations throughout will be in red, white and gold, and every inch of surface space will be dressed in some manner of drapery or floral dress. Over 18,000 natural flowers will be used.

The poster girl design for the Expo show is an artistic triumph and next week the attractive young woman will smile upon one million faces in 50 counties surrounding Pittsburg

Rena Aubrey, the noted soprano, will appear at each concert with Walter Blaufuss' and his orchestral band, the organization that was a feature of the Grand Palace Auto Show just closed in New York.
